FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

How can I get specific information about the case?

Call your local law enforcement agency, prosecutor's office, or victim service provider for information.

What if I need financial assistance?

You could be eligible for reparations from the State of Minnesota if you are a victim of a violent crime and have out-of-pocket costs related to medical care, counseling, a funeral, or lost wages. You could be eligible for restitution from the defendant if he/she is found guilty or enters a guilty plea.

What should I do if I receive a subpoena or am called to testify?

A subpoena is a court order to appear in court. Read it very carefully. It will have instructions on whom to call for court information and location. However, if you have a scheduling conflict or have any questions, call whoever sent the subpoena. As a witness, you will receive a small fee for your time and mileage.

Do these rights apply when the offender is a juvenile?

Yes.

How will I know when the offender gets out of jail or prison?

To be informed about an offender's release from jail or prison, you must make a special request to be notified. Contact VINE (Victim Information and Notification Everyday) about signing up with the automatic notification system, or talk to a local victim service provider for more information. The VINE system includes the Department of Corrections facilities, and most, but not all, county facilities in Minnesota. The Department of Corrections has an additional notification request form that must be completed.

Can I attend all the hearings?

Yes. In general, criminal court proceedings involving adult defendants are open to the public. A judge may close a hearing or exclude a party under certain circumstances. Victims in cases involving juvenile offenders may attend the court proceedings.
